To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the U.S. Merchant Marine of World War II, in recognition of their dedicated and vital service during World War II.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 9, 2015

Mrs. BROOKS of Indiana (for herself and Ms. HAHN) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the U.S. Merchant Marine of World War II, in recognition of their dedicated and vital service during World War II.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Merchant Marine of 5 World War II Congressional Gold Medal Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

1 (1) 2015 marks the 70th anniversary of the Al-
2 lied victory in World War II and the restoration of 3 peacetime across the European and Pacific theaters.

4 (2) The United States Merchant Marine was in-
5 tegral in providing the link between domestic pro-
6 duction and the fighting forces overseas, providing 7 combat equipment, fuel, food, commodities, and raw
8 materials to troops stationed overseas.

9 (3) Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King acknowledged
10 the indispensability of the Merchant Marine to the 11 victory in a 1945 letter stating that without their 12 support, “the Navy could not have accomplished its 13 mission”.

14 (4) President and former Supreme Commander
15 of the Allied Forces, Dwight D. Eisenhower, ac-
16 knowledged that “through the prompt delivery of 17 supplies and equipment to our armed forces over-
18 seas, and of cargoes representing economic and mili-
19 tary aid to friendly nations, the American Merchant
20 Marine has effectively helped to strengthen the 21 forces of freedom throughout the world”.

22 (5) Military missions and war planning were 23 contingent upon the availability of resources and 24 that the United States Merchant Marine played a 25 vital role in this regard, ensuring the efficient and

1 reliable transoceanic transport of military equipment
2 as well as both military and civilian personnel.

3 (6) The United States Merchant Marine pro-
4 vided for the successful transport of resources and 5 personnel despite consistent and ongoing exposure to 6 enemy combatants from both the air and the sea,
7 such as enemy bomber squadrons, submarines, and 8 mines.

9 (7) The efforts of the United States Merchant
10 Marine were not without sacrifices as they bore a 11 higher per capita casualty rate than any other 12 branch of the military during the war.

13 (8) The United States Merchant Marine proved 14 to be an instrumental asset on untold occasions, par-
15 ticipating in every landing operation by the United 16 States Marine Corps from Guadalcanal to Iwo Jima
17 as well as providing, for instance, the bulk tonnage
18 of material necessary for the invasion of Normandy 19 which “would not have been possible without the 20 Merchant Marine”, as a 1944 New York Times arti-
21 cle observed.

22 (9) In also assessing their performance, General
23 Dwight D. Eisenhower stated, “every man in this 24 Allied command is quick to express his admiration
25 for the loyalty, courage, and fortitude of the officers

1 and men of the Merchant Marine. We count upon 2 their efficiency and their utter devotion to duty as 3 we do our own; they have never failed us”.

4 (10) During a September 1944 speech, Presi-
5 dent Franklin D. Roosevelt stated, the Merchant
6 Marine has “delivered the goods when and where 7 needed in every theater of operations and across 8 every ocean in the biggest, the most difficult, and 9 dangerous transportation job ever undertaken. As 10 time goes on, there will be greater public under-11 standing of our merchant fleet’s record during this 12 war.”.

13 (11) The feats and accomplishments of the 14 Merchant Marine are deserving of broader public
15 recognition.

16 (12) The United States will be forever grateful
17 and indebted to the U.S. Merchant Marine for their 18 effective, reliable, and courageous transport of goods
19 and resources in enemy territory throughout thea-
20 ters of every variety in World War II; that these 21 goods and resources saved thousands of lives and en-
22 abled the Allied Powers to claim victory in World
23 War II.

24 (13) The Congressional Gold Medal will be an 25 appropriate way to shed further light on the service

1 of the Merchant Marine in World War II and the in-
2 strumental role they played in winning World War
3 II.
